

PDR Tap Down Punch Set 2pc

A pair of Nylon punch type tap down tools, suitable for gently knocking down high spots and removing small dents and dings on body panels as part of a Paintless Dent Repair. Each features a knurled grip, together with a flat side fitted with a pair of magnets to allow them to be easily stowed during the course of the repair.

Additional Information

- A pair of tap down tools, for use during a paintless dent repair (PDR).
- Length: 115mm; Diameter: 18mm.
- Manufactured from Nylon.
- Knurled finish grip for precision handling, with integral magnets for storage.
- Suitable for use to remove high spots, small dents & dings.

<http://powertec.co.uk/product/92100>

