

PDR Tap Down Kit

A pair of aluminium punch type tap down tools, supplied with an assortment of interchangeable heads, suitable for gently knocking down high spots and removing small dents and dings on body panels. Each features an aluminium body with an anodised finished, with rubber inserts for grip and stainless steel striking heads. The blue one is fitted with a magnet in the body to allow it to be easily stowed during the course of the repair.

Additional Information

- A pair of tap down tools, with interchangeable heads, for use during a paintless dent repair (PDR).
- Contents: 16x hard plastic (POM) heads. 4x thermoplastic (PEI) heads.
- 7x carbon steel heads. 4x stainless steel heads. 3x reversible stainless steel heads. 6x thread adaptors.
- Suitable for use to remove high spots, small dents & dings. Supplied in a plastic storage box.
- Heads also compatible with Power-TEC telescopic PDR hammer, Part No. 92674.

<http://powertec.co.uk/product/92689>

